Constable Kate Pulford, Halton Regional Police, and Graham Flint of FORCE were the featured speakers at April 14th's Public Information Meeting held by the Nassagaweya Community Consultation Committee. Just one day after the Province shut down the St Marys' quarry application, Flint was greeted at the meeting with a standing ovation. PHOTO BY CINDY LUNAU

St Mary's quarry stopped by Province...

As a result, St. Mary's Cement Inc. was prohibited from using these lands for a proposed major quarry development.

The zoning order came after concerns about the potential impact on groundwater raised by Hamilton City Council, the Halton Regional Council, local Medical officers of Health and countless citizens potentially impacted by the development.
